Karl Hess hit two free throws and Roger Webb hit eight in a row over the last 1:35 to seal the victory. Four Liberty Baptist players scored in double figures, led by Rod Martin with 20 points. Karl Hess finished with 18 points, Ed Vickers had 17 points and Roger Webb tossed in 10 points. Vickers also finished with 13 rebounds and Webb handed out 10 assists to lead the Flames. Liberty defeated Olivet Nazarene, 74-73, in the quarterfinals and Lee College, 99-90, in the semifinals. Ed Vickers was named to the all-tournament team and Karl Hess was named the tournament's most outstanding player.

1994 Big South Champions

Liberty Claims Championship, National Spotlight

The excitement surrounding the Liberty University campus during the 1993-94 basketball season was breath taking, magical and more than anything else, unforgettable.

After posting a 3-5 record in non-conference play the Flames started their Big South slate with a 4-4 mark before turning up the heat on the opposition. The Flames won eight of their final 10 games as they headed into the conference tournament as the fourth seed.

In their opening round meeting with Charleston Southern, the Flames took control of a tightly contested game in the second half to claim a 82-71 win and date with the Towson State – the No. 1 seed and the regular season conference champions – in the semifinals.

During the regular season, the Tigers won both meetings with the Flames by a combined six points. This time the Flames would take it to the Tigers from the start. After shooting 53 percent in the first half, Liberty held a 38-30 edge after the game's first 20 minutes.

In the second half Towson State found themselves down 13-points before making a charge. The Tigers got to within 53-52 with 9:15 but could not take the lead. Once again Towson State got to within one point of the lead with 27 second remaining but Matt Hildebrand sealed the Liberty win with four straight free throws.

The Flames made their first Big South finals appearance against the second seeded Campbell Camels. The teams split two tightly contested regular season meetings but the Flames would never let the Camels into the game.

Liberty led by as many as 19-points in the opening half in taking charge of the contest with a 37-20 halftime lead. The Flames didn't falter in the second half and held a double figure lead throughout the rest of the game as they headed to the school's first NCAA basketball appearance with a 76-62 win.

On "Selection Sunday" the Flames drew a 16th seed in the East region against the North Carolina Tarheels. The contest drew in Landover, Md. drew 19,718 fans which was the biggest crowd to ever watch Liberty sporting event.

Liberty proved to be a formidable opponent for the top-seed as North Carolina held just a 32-26 lead at halftime. With the Tarheels holding a 36-31 edge with 17:36 left in the game, the Flames went on a 9-1 scoring spree to take a 40-36 lead with 15:10 remaining.

A Chris Toomer three-pointer with 10:01 gave the Flames a 46-45 lead in front on a nation wide television audience. However, Liberty ran out of magic as North Carolina finished the game on a 25-6 run as the Tarheels claimed a 71-51 win.

2004 Big South Champions

Liberty Completes World Wide Tour En Route To Championship

It took over 15,000 miles traveled, 20 different opponents, 12 different cities, six different states, two prestigious tournaments, two of the elite programs in Division I basketball and a myriad of circumstances and situations, but it all led Liberty back to just a few steps outside of its own locker room as March 6, 2004, was the culmination of 140 days of practice and games that completed the Flames world wide tour en route to their first Big South Championship in over 10 years.

During the regular season, the Flames traveled as far as Alaska, to participate in the Great Alaska Shootout, and Arizona, to complete in the Fiesta Bowl Classic, giving them a chance to face the likes of Duke and Arizona.

In total, the Flames played the toughest non-conference schedule in school history and one that ranked in the Top 50 in the country.

But it all seemed to workout just perfectly for the Flames as the difficulties of the schedule prepared Liberty for a grueling Big South Conference regular season, which Liberty finished tied atop the regular-season standings with league newcomer Birmingham-Southern, earning them their first-ever number-one seed in a Big South Basketball Championship and the right to host all of their tournament games in the Vines Center.

After surviving a pesky eighth-seeded Charleston Southern squad, 60-54, which took the Flames to overtime during the regular season, Liberty picked up momentum in its quest for a second Big South title in 10 years with an 88-73 victory over fourth-seeded Coastal Carolina, propelling the team to its fourth appearance in a Big South Championship title game.

The title game pitted the top two teams in the tournament against each other as the top-seeded Flames squared off against second-seeded High Point, but the contest quickly proved to be a one-sided battle as Liberty jumped out on top of the Panthers early in the game and never looked back en route to an 89-44 victory over High Point, marking the most dominating Big South Championship title game performance in the league's 20-year history.

After the final buzzer sounded in the Vines Center on March 6, 2004, most if not all of the Big South record 8,515 fans in attendance for the championship game stormed the court to celebrate with the victors and started a party that last several days in Lynchburg.

Eight days later, the Flames returned to the Vines Center floor to host a "Selection Show" gathering, where they learned that they would be traveling to Buffalo, N.Y., as a 16th-seed and would face top-seeded St. Joseph's.

Coming off their first loss of the season, St. Joseph's stormed out to an early lead as All-American Jameer Nelson scored 22 of the Hawks' 46 first half points. Liberty slowly overcame St. Joseph's quick start; however, the margin was too great and the Flames fell to the eventual "Elite Eight" team, 82-63.

The future of the Flames' program was the bright spot for Liberty in the contest as David Dees netted a team-high 22 points, while Big South Rookie of the Year Larry Blair scored nine, giving the upcoming leaders of the team the taste of what they hoped would become an annual tradition during their stay at Liberty.

Retired Jerseys

Matt Hildebrand - #20

One of the top players to ever wear a Liberty uniform, Matt Hildebrand excelled on and off on the court during his four-year career. He helped lead the Flames to their first-ever Big South Conference championship and NCAA Tournament appearance in 1994.

Because of his commitment to the program and outstanding performance over his four-year career, Hildebrand was brought back on December 3, 1994, to have his jersey retired in front of the home fans in the Vines Center.

Hildebrand, an all-conference performer, started every game during his career at Liberty and holds numerous school and conference records. The 1994 Big South Conference Male Athlete of the Year, he was ranked fourth in the nation in free

He scored over 1,500 points, 385 rebounds and dished out 583 assists, while shooting 45 percent from the floor. He also hit a school-record 207 three-pointers. Hildebrand was also the recipient of the 1993-94 Rock Royer/Mack Rivera award which goes to the most accomplished Liberty student athlete of the year.

Hildebrand led the Flames with 20 points in the hard-fought battle against the North Carolina Tar Heels in the first round of the NCAA tournament. He was named the Chevrolet Player of the Game for his performance.

Julius Nwosu - #00

Julius Nwosu was the first big man to excel at Liberty, since the school became an NCAA Division I member in 1988. He was the first Flame to play in the National Basketball Association with the San Antonio Spurs in 1995. Nwosu also helped lead the Flames into their first year as a member of the Big South Conference and to their first 20-win season (23-7, 1992) in nine years and first at the NCAA Division I level.

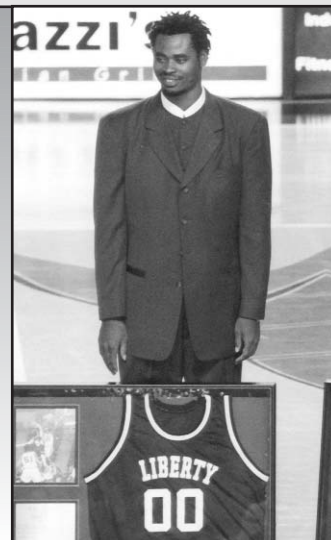

Because of his commitment to the program and outstanding performance over his three-year career, Nwosu was brought back on November 15, 1997, to have his jersey retired in front of the home fans at the Vines Center.

He earned all-Big South Conference honors as a junior and senior and ranked among the conference's scoring, rebounding and blocked shot leaders both seasons. Nwosu also finished second in the conference in field goal percentage as a senior (.615). He led the conference in blocked shots (1.8) as a junior and was selected as the conference's player of the week on three occasions during his career.

He finished with a career-high six blocked shots against UNC Greensboro and Campbell as a senior. Nwosu scored a career-high 32 points against Tennessee Temple during his senior campaign. He finished with a career-high 18 rebounds against Radford in the Big South Conference Tournament. His 18 rebounds tied a Big South Conference Tournament record.

He led the squad in scoring (18.1), rebounding (8.5), block shots (1.6) and field goal percentage (.615) as a senior. Nwosu also led the team in scoring (13.7) and block shots (1.8) as a junior

Peter Aluma - #00

Peter Aluma was one of the top centers in Liberty and Big South Conference history. He was an excellent scorer and prolific shot blocker during his career with the Flames, helping them to three conference championship games and one Big South Championship title in 1994.

Because of his commitment to the program and outstanding performance over his four-year career, Aluma was brought back on November 15, 1997, to have his jersey retired in front of the home fans at the Vines Center.

Aluma finished his Big South Conference career as the top shot blocker (366), third in games played (119), second in free throws made (451) and third in scoring (1,715). He also holds the number two, three and four positions on the single-season blocked shot list. Aluma finished 13th in blocked shots and 18th in blocked shot average among career national leaders.

He was selected to the Big South Conference's all-rookie team as a freshman and then was an all-conference performer for three years. He was selected to the all-tournament team three times, being selected most outstanding player twice. Aluma was a two-time selection to the VaSID all-state team and the Richmond Times Dispatch.

Aluma, a three-year starter during his career at Liberty holds several school records. He set the record for blocked shots in a game, season and career and finished second in free throws made and fifth in school's history for scoring. He owns the single-season record for blocks (113) and holds the number two through four marks also.

Aluma finished first on the school's NCAA Division I scoring list, free throws made list, second in offensive and defensive rebounds, second in minutes played and third in steals. He scored double-digits 87 times, scored 20 or more points 36 times and has 13 double-doubles to his credit.
